Announcing the 2010 VIP Tour to
LUCERNE SUMMER FESTIVAL

August 27 – September 1, 2010

Exclusive VIP Tour for no more than 20 participants includes:

- Private transportation to and from Zurich airport
- Five nights at the five-star Hotel Palace Luzern including sumptuous buffet breakfast and boat transportation to the Concert Hall.

Best seats to four extraordinary concerts:

August 27	The Cleveland Orchestra Franz Welser-Möst, conductor (Bruckner - Symphony No. 8)
August 29	11AM: Maurizio Pollini, piano (Chopin - 24 Preludes; Debussy - Etudes 2nd Vol., Boulez - Sonata No. 2)
August 30	Gewandhaus Orchestra Leipzig Riccardo Chailly, conductor Enrico Dindo, cello
August 31	Berlin Philharmonic Simon Rattle, conductor (Beethoven - Symphony No. 4 Mahler - Symphony No. 1)

* Private lunches, dinners and receptions with noted members of Swiss cultural and business society are being planned.

 The cost of the tour is 5000 Swiss francs per person plus a fully-tax deductible donation of $500 to the American Friends of Lucerne Festival. NOTE: We have not raised the price of the tour since we began in 2002. In order to maintain the high quality of the tour and in order to support the American Friends of Lucerne Festival, we ask that a $500 donation per person be made by separate check, payable to the American Friends of Lucerne Festival one month before the tour.
